

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. Martha Meader has returned to Summers.

Mr. J. H. Judd made his regular trip home Saturday night.

Mr. W. S. Starns, of Pulaski county, is in pair, selling fruit trees.

Mr. W. W. Jones has been quite sick for several days.

Mr. L. E. Hays, Montpelier, called at the News office last Saturday.

Mr. J. W. Johnston did a good business at Jamestown last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Tim Bradshaw and Mr. Little Bradshaw are on the sick list.

Mr. W. M. Wilmore, who represents the News at Gradyville, was up Monday.

Mr. J. B. Yates passed through Columbus Monday, enroute to Marion county.

Mrs. Sarah Bell, of Elkhorn, is visiting Mr. W. S. Southerland and family near Cane Valley.

Mr. Jas. Garnett, Jr., assisted in the prosecution of Murrell Tarter at Jamestown last week.

Mr. J. C. Yates, Bradfordville, passed through Columbia last Saturday, enroute to Gradyville.

Miss Susie Rush, who has been visiting Mrs. D. H. Butler, started for her Texas home Monday.

Mrs. J. W. Richards is in bad health and at present confined to her room, but it is hoped that she will soon be well.

Mrs. W. S. Southerland and little daughter, Monta, have returned home after a two weeks visit with relatives at Elkhorn.

Miss Addie Tate, who has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. A. A. Strange, this city, left for Louisville last Monday.

Mrs. E. G. Atkins and her little daughter, Mabel, are expected to reach home to-night. They were to leave Pensacola, Fla., last Monday.

LOCAL JOTTINGS.

Next Monday will be county court.

Circuit court will open at Edmontown next Monday.

Born, to the wife of Asure Damron, the 17, a daughter.

Twin boys were born to the wife of John Hopkins one day last week.

For Sale, a cow and calf, good milkers, call ten days old. W. L. Walker, Columbia, Ky.

The roads have been in a fearful condition for the past week, almost impassable.

If you need life insurance and want to get in a company that is a company see J. E. Murrell.

Miss Addie Tate entertained a few friends at the residence of Capt. W. W. Bradshaw, last Friday evening.

For Sale.—A good farm, well-improved, all necessary buildings, lying on Cumberland river, Russell county.

J. M. Smith, Lula, Ky.

Men who have pettered out of the Democratic party in their old age are too utterly miserable to contemplate.

Salesman wanted to look after our interests in Adair or adjacent counties. Salary or commission.

The Harvey Oil Co., Cleveland, O.

Matters and things must be getting right in Adair. There has not been a United States Marshal in the county for ten days.

All parties owing me either note of account are requested to call and settle at once. I need money.

J. W. Jackman.

"Uncle" Sol Turpen will preach at the Baptist church, at 11 a. m., the 3rd Sunday in March, also at Mt. Pleasant on the same day at 3 p. m.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Pile, fell down a stairway last week and was considerably hurt. It is now about well.

Miss Etile Bradshaw entertained a few special friends last Thursday evening. Refreshments were served and delightful music rendered.

Married, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. J. K. P. Chapman, in Russell county, Tuesday, the 20th instant, Miss Louvenia Chapman to Mr. W. A. Selby.

Horses and mules are not allowed to run loose upon the streets. The Town Marshal has orders to take up all such animals and charge the cost to the owners.

Enclose 25 cts. to T. I. Smith, Cane Valley, Ky., and receive by mail a life-size picture of Gov. William Goebel. Size 22x16—surrounded by interesting scenes in Frankfort.

Mr. J. R. Milby, formerly postmaster at Milby, Green county, was tried in the United States Court at Louisville, last week, for using the mail for fraudulent purposes, and acquitted.

Hancock & Deerman, who owned and operated a saw-mill near Fairplay, this county, sold their outfit last Saturday to John Morrison, of this place, and Clever Hood, who will continue to operate the mill.

Next Sunday will be Rev. J. L. Kilgore's regular appointment at this place. He will probably not preach at night on account of Eld. Williams' farewell sermon.

Eld. Z. T. Williams will preach at the Christian church next Sunday night, his last sermon before starting to Palestine. Eld. Lawrence Williams will preach in the forenoon.

Mr. Matthew Gabbert, whose home was near Joppa, this county, died Monday night. Mr. Gabbert was a good citizen and had been in bad health for several months. He was about sixty years old.

Mr. G. B. Murphy, Sparksville, who took a number of milk cows to Casey county returned Tuesday. He brought back two of his cows owing to the dullness of the market caused from the lack of feed.

Your attention is called to Mrs. Emma T. Strange's advertisement in this issue of the News. Mrs. Strange is an experienced milliner, and is acquainted with the styles and the needs of this section.

We learn that Judge Jos. E. Hays, Jamestown, who was stricken with paralysis some days ago, is not improving. He is quite an old man and his family and friends are fearful that he can be with them but a short time.

There are some parties who are evidently determined to annoy the Town Marshal, Mr. Geo. Coffey. They wait until all law-abiding people retire to their beds, then come out and fire off their pistols. It is only a question of short time when they will be "taken in."

How would it suit the municipal board to purchase a few street lamps? Other towns much smaller than Columbia have them. They would cost but little, and the city certainly needs them. By all means one should be placed in front of each of the respective church buildings.

There were sixty Adair county men summoned to report at Jamestown last Thursday morning. Out of the number twelve jurors were to be selected to try a murder case. All of the sixty men reported but three and they had lawful excuses.

Mr. Arthur Baugh, son of the late Dr. A. Baugh, has been appointed to serve as County Clerk of Russell until the next general election. He will probably be a candidate to fill out the unexpired term of his deceased father. Should he ask the support he will evidently be elected.

The series of meetings at Providence church, near Stapp's Spring, conducted by Revs. C. F. Breeding and J. O. Brock, closed last Monday. The meeting resulted in much good, so we are informed, there being twenty-five professions and renewals. Sixteen were added to the church and others will follow.

Mr. Zach Darnell, who lives near Fairplay, this county, was one of the sixty men summoned to appear at Jamestown last Thursday. He did not have a horse and the roads were very muddy and the weather disagreeable, but he was not a man to disobey an order of court—walking the whole distance and reporting in due time.

A large crowd attended Mr. C. M. Breeding's sale last Friday, and much valuable property and many useful articles were disposed of to the highest bidder. Several head of young stock sold at fair prices. "Adair Boy," a very noted stallion in this county, only brought $50.00; "Jim Gore," a celebrated jack, was sold for $150.00.

Mary Snow Patterson is the name of a little bright four-year-old at the Patterson Hotel, Jamestown. She is a beautiful child with dark, curly hair and has a very affectionate disposition—never out of humor, and is the general favorite of every one who knows the hotel. A man must be as cold as a Laplander hugging an icicle when he fails to take notice of such an interesting little "tot."

Mr. M. H. Marcum, who was accidentally thrown from his wagon, two weeks ago, is yet a great sufferer. His right wrist is badly sprained and his arm very much swollen. It is likely that some of the smaller bones in the wrist were crushed or broken and the knitting together is giving the sufferer much pain. However, Mr. Marcum hopes to be able to meet his customers in Louisville during the spring trade.

Mr. Jo Tupman, a citizen of this county, living a few miles from Columbia, will be married to Miss Bettie Curd, who lives in the vicinity of town, to-morrow. We trust that this union will redound to the happiness of the contracting parties. The bride to be is a sister of Dr. J. H. Curd, who resides at Middleborough, and the intended groom is a son of Mr. Joel Tupman, who died many years ago. By occupation, he is a farmer.

Mr. Clever Hood has left at this office a copy of an old letter written by Henry Clay to Gen. Jas. Wilkinson. It is evidently the original manuscript, and it was written at Washington, D. C., May 13, 1820. It is mostly in regard to a treaty with Spain. The last paragraph reads: "Be pleased to make my respectful compliments to Mrs. Wilkinson, and say to her that she presented, when I had the pleasure of seeing her, such an image of cheerfulness and contentment that I have taken the liberty of holding her up on several occasions as the model of a good and happy wife."

Five hundred dollars have been subscribed by the citizens of this section for the purpose of building a parsonage for the Presbyterians. Rev. Walton, who has this matter in charge will turn over the subscription to a committee. The Presbytery will likely add a sufficient amount to guarantee a neat parsonage. Rev. Walton has worked earnestly in this matter and we are glad to know that his efforts have brought good results.

Col. Morrison, who served in the Federal army, and who is an uncompromising Republican, denounces Gov. Goebel's assassin in no uncertain tones. When the word reached Jamestown a few days ago it was believed that the real murderer had been arrested. Col. Morrison said, in the presence of a News man, I would like to be one of the jurors to try him. "Would you hang him?" asked a friend. "I would burn him at the stake were I so permitted by law," said the Colonel.

Murrell Tarter was tried in the Russell Circuit Court last week for the murder of Wm. Redman, the crime having been committed one year ago last November. The jury was comprised of Adair county citizens and was out but a short time, bringing in a verdict of acquittal. Redman was killed in sight of the Jamestown court-house, and it was generally believed that Tarter could not be convicted for murder. There had been two other trials, hung juries both times.

Mr. Frank Jones, of Jamestown, is not only a clever and accommodating gentleman, but he is a fine business man. He has one trouble, however, that occasionally causes him great annoyance; he is somewhat affected with absentmindedness. For instance, a few nights ago his wife requested him to go and close the back door. He answered "all right," and removing a pair of new socks from his feet, threw them in the fire, and went.

Mr. J. W. Mitchell, of Russell county, who is a student at Bowling Green, writes the News that there are seven hundred pupils attending the Business Normal. The students have organized a moot Congress, and at the last session, after a hot discussion, Bingham Roberts was seated. The Pension bill was also discussed and several of the speakers became warm in the collar. There are four other societies, Russell county being represented in each.

E. R. Beauchamp & Son, Edmontown, whose business house and stock of goods were recently destroyed by fire, are again in business with a new, clean stock of general merchandise, and will be glad to see their old friends. The senior member of this firm is perhaps the oldest merchant in Metcalfe county. The junior member married in this county and has quite a number of relatives who will be glad to learn that he is now ready to receive his many customers.

A decision in the suit of the heirs of Geo. C. Spars against Foster Ray was rendered in the Marion Circuit by Judge Patterson last week. The suit was brought by Geo. C. Avritt, formerly a citizen of Columbia, and it involved the title of Mr. Ray's fine stock farm, two miles from Lebanon, upon which is a handsome home and improvements, valued at many thousands. Mr. Avritt's fee in the case, we are reliably informed, was $9,300. The case will go up, but it is the judgment of the Lebanon lawyers the lower court will be sustained.

Two of our professional gentlemen, who recently attended court at Jamestown, concluded one evening after supper to sit Mr. Sisco Dockery out. A game of "pitch" was proposed and the amusement commenced. They played until the turn of the night when the oil in the lamp gave out. Another lamp was procured and at 2 o'clock in the morning it began to flicker when one of the Columbians remarked "we will have to quit." "Oh, no," said Mr. Dockery, "I will get another lamp. I am just getting interested in the game."

We understand that on account of sickness in the family Mrs. Rollin Hurt will have to decline to accept the Presidency of the Ladies' Goebel Monument society of Adair county. Another name will have to be selected, and in order that the work may not be delayed some other lady should be suggested to Mrs. C. C. McChord at once. Mrs. Hurt, we are informed would have taken pleasure in serving were it not for the situation mentioned above.

Since writing the above Mrs. J. W. Butler has received her appointment. She will at once organize the county by districts.

Russell county has sustained a great loss in the death of Dr. A. Baugh, a notice of which appeared in the last week's issue of the News. He was a born gentleman and did not have an enemy in the county. For many years he successfully practiced his profession in the vicinity of Rowena, the people having perfect confidence in him as a physician. Two years ago last November he was elected clerk of the Russell county court, making a splendid official until removed by death. He had been quite a feeble man for some months before the end came, but the immediate cause of his death was a stroke of paralysis—stricken in both sides. Physicians were with him continually, but his affliction was beyond the reach of skillful men. He was a very tender and affectionate husband and father, and the surviving members of his family are almost heart-broken. The News tenders its deepest sympathy to the widow and children in this the darkest morning of their lives.

There is scarcely a week but we are asked how will certain gentlemen in this community, who have always been Democrats, but who supported Mr. Brown in the last contest, vote at the next election. In answering, will state we have only heard a few of those gentlemen express themselves, and the ones we heard stated that they would vote the straight Democratic ticket. Hence, we conclude, that the Democrats who voted the Brown ticket will remain in the party. The Democrats who said they were for Brown and who voted for Taylor, will henceforth be identified with the Republican party. This is our honest opinion.

Rev. T. F. Walton, who has been the pastor of the Presbyterian Church, this city, for the past three years, grows in popularity as his work proceeds. Notwithstanding the cold, disagreeable weather last Sunday night a fair audience greeted him, and an interesting and pathetic sermon was delivered. It was the story of Lazarus and his two sisters, Mary and Martha. Before dismissing the congregation, Mr. Walton stated that the three years passed in Columbia had been the happiest of his life. The young people had been extremely kind to him, and for the interest he felt in them, he would, on the second Sunday (forenoon) in March deliver a sermon for their special benefit. The young people of all denominations are most cordially invited to be present.

It seems that farmers in every county in the State have turned their attention to mule raising. The Larue County Herald has the following to say concerning the mule industry: "Notwithstanding that many farmers have begun to turn their attention to the mule raising industry, it is claimed that it will be four or five years before the stock of mules is fully replenished. There was never such a scarcity of them in the country, while the demand is strong and increasing in strength. Farmers know that mule money is the most satisfactory that they get hold of, and business men have learned that a thousand dollars of money paid out in the country for mules has a greater effect than the same amount paid for any other commodity. Mule money pays more debts than any other kind of money, for some reason."

Russell Circuit Court.

There was but little litigation in the Russell Circuit Court just closed. But few important civil suits were tried, but a great many minor Common Pleas cases were disposed of, a conviction in nearly every case. The good citizens of Russell county are down on pistol packers and those who sell liquor, and on such cases a jury is generally ready to report in five minutes. The following gentlemen comprised the two juries:

Grand Jury—John Dunbar, foreman, D. G. Coffey, George Stevenson, Wm. Wilson, H. McBeath, W. T. Vigie, Thomas Selby, Ben Balingier, John Gosser, Hiram Miller Robert Miller, T. J. Brockman.

Petit Jury—Samuel Sparks, W. E. Dockery, Moses Wilson, Willis M. McQuary, Fount Bollin, John Woodbridge, F. F. Foley, Thomas Hale, 2d Tucker, Logan Dugan, C. M. Gains, James Walters, David Wilson, Louisa Wilson, Jr., Samuel Winfrey, C. E. Grider, J. L. Darnell, T. L. Humble, D. E. Flanagan, James A. Shepherd, Schuyler Canada, J. W. Gaddery, J. W. Smith, Geo. W. Hays.

Death of Mr. James Squires.

Last Monday afternoon the subject of this sketch surrendered all earthly hopes and went to meet his God. He was in his 85th year and was one of the best and most respected citizens of this county. He had been in declining health for more than a year, but the immediate cause of his death was the result of a fall which he received about one week before his demise.

"Uncle Jim," as he was familiarly called, lost his wife some years ago. He was not the father of any children, and since the death of Mrs. Squires he has been kindly cared for by two of his wife's nephews—B. C. and Jas. Suddarth. "Uncle Jim" was a good liver all his life and owned the farm upon which he died.

There are many surviving relatives of the deceased in the county. Dr. J. H. Grady, of this city, was his nephew, and Mrs. Nannie White and Miss Sallie Field were his nieces.

For many years the deceased was a devoted member of the Christian Church, and Adair county never lost a kinder nor a better citizen. The interment was in the family burying ground, near his late residence.

ELD. Z. T. WILLIAMS.

He Writes Concerning the Thirtieth Anniversary of His Marriage.

And His Contemplated Visit to the Holy Land, France, England and Scotland.

WILL START ON 5TH OF MARCH.

MONTPELIER, KY., Feb. 24, 1900. Editor of the News:

This, the 24th day of February, is our 30th anniversary. Thirty years ago to-day, at 6 o'clock p. m., within two hundred yards of where I now sit, Miss Clemmie J. Wheat and the writer were made one, Frances N. Taylor officiating.

As I try to recall to mind the many changes that have occurred and the many blessings that have been showered upon us by the giver of all good, I am made to wonder at the swiftness of time and the well-marked footprints he leaves as the years go by.

I feel too that I have not been as appreciative of all the wonderful blessings that have been ours to enjoy as I hope to be in the future. As we try to recount the blessings that have been ours to enjoy in the past thirty years of married life, they seem to grow into an innumerable multitude.

A happy home circle, yet unbroken, consisting of six children for whom we feel thankful and have reason to feel proud. It has been our happy privilege to see all of them, one by one in early youth obey the Gospel.

Reasonable success has crowned our efforts in business affairs. We have been wonderfully blessed in our ministerial efforts. Ten years ago next July marks the beginning of our labors in the ministry after twenty years of active business life. During this period of ten years I have labored in the ministry 1,887 days; preached 3,015 sermons; baptized 948 persons; reclaimed 210; from other denominations 89; cash received for ten years' labor, $2,656.30 or less than $266.00 per year. So, if I had gone into the ministry to make money I would have missed it.

I have never regretted the day that I decided to preach the Gospel; and let me live long or die soon I expect to spend my life in the service of the Master.

Now in order to still better equip myself for the work of the ministry, I have decided to visit the Holy Land and learn more fully of the events recorded in the word of God. So on the 5th day of March, the Lord willing, I will leave Columbia for New York City, via Louisville and Washington where I hope to spend a day or so sight seeing. Then on March the 10th, at 10 o'clock, we sail on the Spartan Prince for Naples, Italy, a fifteen days voyage. There we hope to visit the ruins of Pompeii, Mt. Vesuvius, etc.; thence to Rome, Genoa, etc.; thence to Alexandria, Cairo, Pyramids, the Nile, etc.; thence to Joppa, Palestine, where we hope to spend one month in seeing the Bible Lands from the Dead Sea to Damascus; thence sail again from Byrrout, via Syria, Ephesus, Athens, Corinth, Constantinople, thence by rail to Paris, via Vienna, and after spending a week or ten days at the exposition go to London, Glasgow and Edinburgh and sail for home.

Should any of our friends think enough of us to write a letter, address me at Jerusalem, Syria, care of Selah Merrell, American Consul. Put a ten cent stamp on it and I will get it some time in April. I will get all letters there written up to the 25th of March.

J. W. McGarvey, Jr., P. H. Duncan, P. H. Crossfield, and myself comprise the company.

I hope to write a letter each week for the county papers.

Hope to be remembered by all my friends at the Throne of Grace, that we may have a safe and profitable voyage. Good bye,

Z. T. WILLIAMS.

We Want Wood.

If you promised to bring us a load of wood now is the time. Bring it at once. Our stoves take 18 inch wood. We have due us 8 or 10 loads with the full understanding that we accept it as a cash payment for the News. This notice is simply to remind those who promised wood that we need it and is not intended for any one except those who have such an understanding. Do not wait for some other person to wood us, but bring it, a big load at once.

GRADYVILLE.

Rev. E. W. Barnett filled his regular appointments last Saturday and Sunday at this place.

H. A. Walker was at Glasgow last Friday and Saturday on business.

J. E. Creel, Campbellsville, was visiting his daughter who is in College here, last Sunday.

J. B. Yates, who has been by the bedside of his sick mother for two weeks left this morning for Louisville and New York.

Miss Mariah Browning, Turk, spent several days of last week in our city.

A 7 month old child of Mr. Hop Pickett died Monday morning of throat trouble.

Mr. C. O. Moss and wife spent a day or so last week by the bedside of their sick father, Mr. P. A. Moss.

Mr. J. A. Diddle attended Mr. C. M. Breeding's sale last Friday.

C. O. Moss and Strong Hill made a business trip in the community of Neil last week.

Born, to the wife of Thos. Moss, on the 20th, a daughter.

Otha, a son of J. H. Moore has been very sick for several days with fever.

H. A. Walker sold last week to Sam Terry, Hiseville, a young peacock mare for $100.

Mr. W. L. Grady availed himself of the opportunity afforded by the recent snow of a turkey hunt and as usual knocked a feather out of a big gobbler and let him go.

Our old friend, J. Cager Yates, the energetic merchant of Bradfordville, was visiting relatives in our town last week and reports business good and times flourishing in his community.

Mollie, a little daughter of G. T. Flowers, stuck a nail into her foot a few days ago and the wound has given her a great deal of trouble.

Mrs. Charles Taylor, of Elkhart, Ill., spent a day or so in our city last week.

Owning to the scarcity of wheat straw and the severe cold weather our stock man, Mr. Geo. H. Nell, says he can not afford to travel this kind of weather, but will be on the market in a short time.

A little boy of Mr. Robert Hamlet received a severe cut on the hand with an ax one day last week.

Mr. C. W. Sparks bought last week of Mrs. Andy Jones her interest in her farm for $100.00. This deal rounds up Mr. Sparks a good farm.

C. S. Bell & Co., made a trip to Horse Cave last Friday with a four horse load of chickens and turkeys. This is about the fourth load of fowls that Mr. Bell has shipped from this section of the country.

Born, to the wife of Thos. Moss on the 20th, a daughter.

Quite a number of the young ladies that are attending college here went home on last Friday evening, viz: Misses Walker, Hamilton, Kinnaird, of Neil, and Caldwell, of Milltown. We must say here that our school is under the supervision of Prof. G. F. Dillon, who has taught for us two years. The students have organized a Literary and debating society, which meets one night each week, and affords much pleasure to those who attend.
